Happy Dollars

Among the generally happy people Jan Recanzone had a hole-in-one on her first hole of 2020. Lucy Rechel finally used her Cougar tag and bagged a big cat.

Scholarships- two of our students attended the meeting and provided us a report on what and how they are doing.

Nevada 2020 Census – Garrett Kalt

The rural regional coordinator for Nevada spoke to us about the 2020 census. Each person counted represents $20,000 of federal resources to our state. Mid-March invitation postcards will be mailed to every household. This year you can complete the census on-line or via the telephone. April 1 is the official count day. If your household has not completed the census by the end of May census workers will begin knocking on doors to assist in the completion. Nevada is one of the fastest growing states so the count should result in additional representation in congress. Even if not population changes will result in redistricting occurring for state and federal representation.

Reminders:

Alex Bodenstein has a new grant for their recycling projects at the high school There is still a need for transporting to Reno. Contact Cheryl Giomi if you can help.

Ticket sales for the super bowl party have begun. Best party deal – Admission for 2 – 1 square on an up to $4,000 chance board, chance to win a new TV and all you can eat buffet and open bar.
