August 25th Meeting –

Rotarian of the Month – Amy Geddes

Amy is our quiet servant. If you didn't know Amy is the library director for Lyon County. She has served our community quietly behind the scenes. Amy is Yerington Rotary treasurer. She is behind the design and printing of the Polio Plus brochure. She is quick to raise her hand to help at any and all of our functions.

We enjoyed a meal and fellowship. Our Golf Tournament has been cancelled due to low sign-ups. Donations will still be accepted.

General membership discussion about fund raising. Polio Plus quilt raffle should meet our club commitment for Polio Plus. Please talk to Jan Recanzone about tickets for this raffle. The silk quilt would make a great gift. Membership discussed a decorated Christmas Tree raffle. Candy LoBue will report to board. Idea is to raffle a fully decorated Christmas Tree.

If you are a scholarship mentor don't forget to reach out to your students. Be a listening ear and communicate back to the committee if there are items they need help with.

Our next meeting will be held at the Dance Studio in Weed Heights. Gallery will provide dinner. Remember bring your own drink. Exact change of $12.00 is appreciated. Bring happy bucks.
