

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world of fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

America's Best Communities

Tim Watts distributed information on a project to recognize America's Best Communities, supported by Frontier Communications and Dish Network. The campaign aims to inspire ideas that will spark economic vitality and sustainable growth in small towns and cities in 27 of the states served by Frontier Communications and Dish Network, with cash rewards up to $3 million for exceptional plans that transform vision into reality.

Literacy Project

Club members agreed to build the bookcase at NRHC Urgent Care for a Free Little Library.
