

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- Third: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world of fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Clean Water is an Important Area of Focus For Rotary International

In some regions of the world, women spend up to 5 hours a day collecting fuel wood and water and up to 4 hours preparing food.

In Africa, 90% of the work of gathering water and wood, for the household and for food preparation, is done by women.

It has been calculated that in South Africa alone, women collectively walk the equivalent distance of 16 times to the moon and back per day gathering water for families

President Patty and Sponsor Jennifer Gorohoff welcomed the newest member, Tonya Peddicord, to our club.

Last Week

At the Susanville Sunrise Rotary meeting today, Arlin Billington gave an excellent presentation on The Rotary Foundation, detailing how Rotary member contributions are used for local and international grants.

Rotarians Phil Nowak and Richard Parker strut their stuff at Northeastern Rural Health Clinic Employee Appreciation Dinner and Party.
