

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world of fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Jim Rogers, President of the Nevada Area Council for Boy Scouts of America, noted various similarities between that organization and Rotary in terms of building leadership and delivering “Service Above Self.” BSA trains volunteers and encourages youth to experience the outdoors, providing leadership for life. Excellent presentation!
