Did you Know???

The district governor (DG) is a very experienced Rotarian who has a wealth of knowledge about current Rotary programs, purposes, policies and goals and is a person of recognized high standing in his or her profession, community and Rotary club. The governor must supervise the organization of new clubs and strengthen existing ones. The DG is responsible to promote and implement all programs and activities of the Rotary International president and the RI Board of Directors. The governor also plans and directs a district conference and other special events.

Jane M. McManus

Shortly after starting an Information Technology Company, Jane was invited to join the Brighton Rotary Club in 1988. She has served three terms on their Board of Directors, Membership Chair, Secretary/President Elect and Club President from 2011-2012. She was the co-chair for the Veterans Memorial Fundraiser, and co-author of a District Grant for that Memorial. In August 2017, Jane organized a sold out event celebrating 30 Year of Women in Rotary.

Jane has also served as the President of the Brighton Rotary Foundation Board, member of the Scholarship Committee and three years as an Assistant Governor. After completing the Rotary Leadership Institute Training, Jane and Mike, her Rotarian spouse, became RLI facilitators. Jane and Mike are both multiple Paul Harris Fellows, members of the Bequest Society and Major Donors.

Jane's community service and leadership roles include: Howell Chamber of Commerce Board Member, Women's Resource Center Chair, LACASA (Livingston Area Council against Spouse Abuse) Board Member, United Way Allocation Committee and Brighton Chamber of Commerce member. In 2015 Jane was inducted into the Brighton Women's Role of Honor.

The McManus Family is a 3rd generation Rotarian Family. Starting with Mike's father, Richard Henry McManus, who was a charter member of the original Southfield Rotary Club. Our daughter, Darlene McManus, joined the Brighton Rotary Satellite Club in 2017. Darlene is the treasurer and liaison to the Brighton High School Interact club. She is also a Paul Harris Fellow, in honor of her grandfather.

The McManus family enjoys lake living and being the staff to their two Cats.
