True to her character, Irma Cry broke barriers as the first woman inducted into the Rotary Club of Slidell North Shore. She embodied the Rotary International creed "Service Above Self" in both her professional and civic life. Irma positively influenced countless lives and worked diligently to make Slidell and St. Tammany Parish the best each could be. As Executive Director for the Slidell Chamber of Commerce for nearly two decades, Economic Liaison for St. Tammany and a founding member of Partners for Stennis, she was a force in economic development. Irma also embraced the advancement of public policy and governance as an elected member of the inaugural St. Tammany Council. She was admired by many in the community as a founder, supporter and leader of Leadership Slidell, and was a graduate of Leadership Louisiana. She humbly received the national NASA Public Service Award and was recognized by ATHENA International as an outstanding reflection of the ATHENA Leadership Model.
