In the Beginning...

DJ President Chris opened the meeting promptly at 12:30 PM. Rene Prado led the Pledge while Catherine van den Toorn gave the 'Thought of the Day.' This involved a mayo jar, pebbles, sand and two cans of beer. The last tag line was "no matter how full life is, there is always room for a couple of beers." If you don't attend the Zoom meetings you miss the subtleties.

Birthday Recognitions

Next President Chris called upon Tom Rickey for his birthday celebration. Tom celebrated with the McCurdys, and his daughter Grace gave him some puzzles. For those who remember Grace as a little girl, she is now 16 with a drivers license. Yikes.

Catherin van den Toorn is celebrating a number of November birthdays. Her's was on the 6th, her husbands is on the 13th and on the 14th is a grandsons. Bet there was lots of birthday cake.

The Speaker

Next up, speaker Brian Sobel, political consultant. Brian was a former Novato resident now living in Petaluma. He is also a political analyst for Channel 2. Brian stated there is nothing dramatic enough to change presidential election. The voter turnout beat anything in the last 100 years. Important upcoming dates are December 8th, the deadline for states to resolve any disputes and certify results; December 14th, where electors vote in their state; and January 6th where Congress will certify and count the votes.

Brian discussed changes in states, with red becoming blue and blue becoming red. He also addressed the issue of polling. Yes, it was wrong again. Pollsters are having increasing problems with accuracy. They deal with no land lines, no one answering due to caller id and multiple robo calls and groups that do not care to share their thoughts and are ambivalent toward government.

Brian mentioned the propositions and felt it is a failure of State Legislature that they don't take on the hard questions and deal with it, but instead turn these hard issues over to the electorate to decide.

Well, what can one say!

The Winner

Gloria Dunn-Violin won the $25.
