MEETING OF JUNE 12, 2017

Welcome: President Dawn Van Siclen opened the meeting, and Steve "Sunshine" Mott let the Smile song, supported by keyboardist Cathy Choi. Bud Carroll shared Words of the Day, Yvonne Finocchiaro led the pledge, and Mott led the singing of America (My Country Tis of Thee).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Demotion Dinner: Wendy Wiegand discussed signups and passed around a sign-up sheet. Those who are bringing guests are asked to bring a check for $50 per guest to the June 19 meeting. Members paid via their dues.

Club Survey: Wiegand asked those who didn't fill out the questionnaire for next Rotary year to pick up one from the tables and check the areas they might be interested in serving.

Governor's Dinner: This dinner will be held June 26 at the La Jolla Marriott.

President Dawn is hoping to fill out a table of 10, saying she'll be sending out an email with info.

WHO AM I?

New member Wendy Evers (left) spent her early years in Texas, before the family moved to Newport Beach when she was nine. She loved participating in all the water activities and sports. She participated in Chapman College's World Campus Afloat, where she spent four months as a student on a ship, visiting many countries and putting into use what she learned. She said it was an incredible experience. She has worked for SDSU, Crown Books and the City of Encinitas, primarily in program development. After she retired, she moved to La Costa and got hired as a consultant in the same field, with many ongoing trips to San Francisco. She is planning to really retire soon, so she can better enjoy her passions: travel, gardening, winetasting and a new puppy.

NEW MEMBER and MEMBER UPGRADE

Gloria Foote presented Nan Geraldo with her Rotary pin and new-member packet. Geraldo is an attorney, specializing in estate planning, and her sponsor was Dave Kulchin. Her other interests are scuba, travel, skiing and Zumba. Foote also presented Tina Ray with her blue badge, as her sponsor, President Dawn, looked on.
(Gloria Foote, Alex Klingensmith, Nan Geraldo, President Dawn and Tina Ray.)

ROTARY MINUTE

David Harrison was unable to fill this minute since he was in Atlanta, at the Rotary International and celebrating 100 years of the Rotary International Foundation.

ROTO-ROOTER

Phil Urbina was given a lot of time and took full advantage. President Dawn had earlier thanked Dave Kulchin for sponsoring so many members into Rotary. When Urbina asked all those sponsored by Kulchin to raise their hand, he "fined" Kulchin $120 for all 12, adding his thanks. Ann Collins, fined $25 after attending the Rotary/Padres game; Wendy Evers, $30 after he phoned her for RR info, but she had none; and Wendy Wiegand, $50 because the club questionnaire didn't offer an opportunity to sign on for Oktoberfest. Yvonne Finocchiaro, $50, for wearing Miguel de Jesus' nametag last week by mistake, plus her recent trips to northern CA, to Maui and to Utah's national parks; Julie Walker, $25, for having tickets to Jimmy Buffett's "Escape to Margaritaville" play in La Jolla; Richard Weston, $50 for taking his family to Disneyland at least 15 times in the past year—so far; and Lou Tapia because he missed the memo on "bring your college daughter to Rotary," which memo Urbina and Josh and LeAnn Rytz received. Rick Grove explained the Myers-Briggs INTJ acronym: Introversion, Intuition, Thinking, Judging, but he got tapped for $50 when didn't know that it was Tina Ray who had used that in her recent Who Am I? talk. Ken Ryan, Stan Prowse and Tracy Carmichael, $25 each, for guessing the correct answer to questions ("was it Ray or Hillary Clinton?"—both INTJ personalities). Un-fined because they guessed correctly were Jessica Jones, Dave Dana and Tom Applegate. Finally, Urbina fined Ray $10 for being a willing subject.

PROGRAM: LEAP TO SUCCESS

DANA
BRISTOL-
SMITH and LAKESHA
SEXTON

Dave Kulchin, Lakesha Sexton, Dana Bristol-Smith and President Dawn Van Siclen

Dave Kulchin introduced Bristol-Smith, whose company is Speak for Success, but her focus for the club was introducing Leap to Success, a volunteer non-profit program for domestic violence survivors. Its mission is to help them regain their voice, build self-confidence and develop leadership skills—there is no fee. She began the program in 2008 because while there are many programs and groups helping domestic violence victims break from that situation, there was a need for a program to help educate and empower them. Since then, Leap to Success has helped 1,000 women. Bristol-Smith introduced Sexton, who was in the first group Leap to Success helped—and who is now a Leap to Success instructor. Sexton, abused first by her mother and then by her husband, sought help via several avenues. But until she met Bristol-Smith, she only felt like a number. Leap to Success, Sexton said, teaches women how to regain their voice when their life has been interrupted. Bristol-Smith said Leap to Success has programs in Vista, downtown SD and at MCAS Miramar and is in talks with Camp Pendleton. It has 50 partners now, and she is open to more (business, corporate, help groups). She also is a willing speaker.

Bud Carroll (left) AGAIN won the drawing, but only $1.
