MEETING OF OCTOBER 29, 2018

President Maureen Simons welcomed all members and guests to the “Greatest Club in the Universe” following Master at Arms, Jim Brubaker’s, call of the meeting to order. Steve “Sunshine” Mott led all in the signing of the Smile Song. Dave Dana led us in the Pledge and Steve led us in the singing of God Bless America. Gina McBride shared Words of Wisdom about the mass shooting at the Tree of Life Synagogue in the Squirrel Hill area of Pittsburg. Noting the irony that this is the neighborhood that served as the model for Fred Rogers’s outstanding children’s television show which was dedicated to friendships and understanding. Gina recalled that when tragedies happen he said his mother always told him “to look for the helpers and you will always find them”. Gina urged all of us to “BE A HELPER”. Guests were introduced, including several who were present in the role of prospective members. Steve then led the club in the Welcome Song.

HALLOWEN COSTUME CONTEST

Lisa Rodman Emceed this year’s costume contest at which participation reached a new high. Winners and their categories were as follows:
Group – Phil Okun and Rocco Ciesco as hippies.
Scariest – Bob Hartsfield as King Kong.
Original/Creative – Nancy Starling as a peacock
Best Hat – Gloria Foot with a spider shaped hat.
Last Minute – Bud Carroll dressed as Halloween
Funniest – Harry Peacock dressed as a clown

Hartsfield in his blow up King Kong outfit fooled all as to who was inside.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Father Ted Atwood announced that former Hi Noon member and Rotarian of the Year the Reverend Laura Sheraton Campbell has been promoted and is now working for the Episcopal Bishop of San Diego. Congratulatory cards were passed around for all to sign wishing Laura great success in her new position. She shall be greatly missed by all in the club for the many contributions she made as an outstanding member of our club.

Gloria Foote swore in Daniel (Danny) Quisenberry as a new member of the club. Daniel’s sponsor is Wendy Wiegand. Daniel received his BLUE BADGE immediately as he is a fifteen year member of Rotary. Hi Noon is his fourth Rotary Club and he has served as club president in one of his former clubs. Daniel is an attorney practicing business and litigation law.

ROTO ROOTER

Pat Hurley started off his Roto Rooting by asking Eric Lodge where broken jack o’ lanterns go to get fixed. Pat figured they all have to go to the “Pumpkin Patch”. Pat then wondered why the skeleton was afraid to cross the road. Pat assumed it was because he lacked the guts.

Pat asked Bob Fenner if he had some good news to which Bob replied that yes, he has been declared cancer free.

Mark Healy was fined for going camping in the Sierras.

J. R. Phillips was fined $100 for putting a posting on Facebook and then forgetting what he had posted.

Finally, Pat announced it was Dave Kulchin's 90th birthday. After a number of limericks honoring Dave were recited by various Rotarians, the club sang the Birthday Song, long version, to Dave. A large birthday cake with a Ferris wheel of candles was wheeled out and everyone enjoyed this special treat.

Today's winner was Kori Dolkas who won $10. The jackpot for November 5 is $350.
