Dave Ray and Mind Masters

Dave Ray is a passionate business coach who facilitates weekly meetings with the South Bay Chapter of Mind Masters.

On Tuesday, December 20th, Business coach Dave Ray presented to Old Mission Rotary. Dave's personal experience as a business owner as well as his career as a Naval Officer has positioned him to coach and guide individuals to be successful.

Dave is a Business and Motivational Speaker and is a facilitator for Mind Masters which is a leading company promoting innovation and learning. The purpose is to empower small business owners to achieve success with personal, professional and financial growth. Dave benefited as a member of Mind Masters when he owned and operated a professional photography business. Dave stressed the importance of written communications and has written a book "Verbal Vigilante."

The handbook is a guide for powerful writing for both personal and business correspondence. The book is filled with many examples of good and bad writing. He credits his love of language with Mr. Reed from his early teen years at Broad Meadows Middle School in Quincy Massachusetts who "introduced me to the art of diagramming sentences, the thrill of weekly vocabulary quizzes and the wonder of dangling participles."

Dave loves public speaking and is available to talk to any group. Contact him at davidray58@gmail.com.

Club Host

December 20th

Jerry Hosenkamp

Jerry served as club host on December 20th and reminisced about spending time as a youth with his family in rural West Virginia. It was a world without running water or electricity. Jerry even remembers using the family outhouse where he was warned to watch out for snakes at night trying to keep warm!
