

Orangevale Rotary Newsletter...by Mike McKibbin

2-23-24

Audrey -Invocation

Rob Auernig -Pledge of Allegiance

Introductions

Dave introduced Mary Johnson of Folsom Lake Rotary

Rob introduced Becky new director at Parks and Rec

Brad introduced our speaker- Steven Norris

Mary Johnson of Folsom Lake Rotary promoted

Bet on Rotary, Game Night and Fundraiser

Monte Carlo gaming

Friday April 19, from 6 to 10 pm

At the Folsom Community Center, 52 Natomas

Tickets available at 2024BetonRotary.eventbrite.com

Dave Shepard reported on Growing Past Day event this Saturday March 2

75 bags of groceries have been prepared for members of unhoused families

Diana is bringing her cotton candy machine

3 Rotaries and Christian Brothers High School are among participants

Dennis gave thanks to participants at Oak Park Rotary House, 9 Rotarians and 3 Casa Interact students participated

Audrey talked about the Special Olympics event and gave special thanks to Bill Webster for his great lunch for the participants

Russ asked for assistance with families who need food delivered monthly for those that are housebound. Work at YOUR convenience. Talk to Russ.

Don Russell, Club Service Chair announced upcoming events as Diana's Candle event at 6805 Douglas Blvd as well as encouraged Blood Donations and the 3 locations to vote in Orangevale

Jeff said that dictionaries will be distributed soon

Vocational Speaker Don Russell

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

He gave each attendee Polaris Glove and Safety Glasses courtesy of Kimberly Clark

Prospector -Deanna

Asked trivia questions about the Yellowstone TV series

Happy fines Don Morris- celebrating anniversary of first date with Cindy

Diana- prospect of being Steven wax free

Brad introduced speaker Steven Norris from Juma Ventures

Juma has been providing Youth Development Services to disconnected teenagers for 30 years

They serve approximately 110 young adults in Sacramento and surrounding counties each year providing mentoring, core skills, job training with the goal of breaking the cycle of poverty with an emphasis on fostering a growth mindset.

They use startup jobs at entertaining venues.

They have served more than 700 youth who had earned more than $1 million in wages

Raffle- Joni 9 balls loser

Next week...

Pledge Jim Buntin

Invocation- Audrey

