Vocational Speaker

Horacio shared a slide presentation of his home town in Mexico, a small town about 2 hours from Puerto Vallarta. Showing the plaza, preschool (which he walked out and then walked home). Many people still cook outside. It was delightful! One funny picture was a pick up piled with people standing (a small barrier holding people in) and he walled it the car pool to work!

His closing comment was "See the beauty of other worlds – be grateful".

Prospector

Keith had his list ready! We started with the Kentucky Derby, then we moved on to Rotary Questions. The Object of Rotary, Avenues of Service, how many presidents have been Rotarians (12). It was fun and we got a chance to learn something fun! Mairy, Tommy, Licia, Bert and Dennis all paid happy fines.

Speaker

Our speaker Ashley Schult Langdon, shared her story of how she came to write a book “Mildly Scenic”. She has a BS in Ecology and Evolution. She has lived around the world, but her love is the American River. In her going to book stores and trying to find more information about the trails, she realized her choices and slim. Since her favorite place is outdoors, she took it upon herself to write the book. Her adventures led her to marketing, education and all the things she didn’t know. She even got involved at Sac State Maps Class. The book is available on Amazon for about $25.

Thought for the Day

“Rivers do not drink their own water, trees do not eat their own fruit, the sun does not shine on itself and flowers do not spread their fragrance for themselves. Living for others is a rule of nature. We are all born to help each other. No matter how difficult it is...life is good when you are happy; but much better when others are happy because of you.”

-- Pope Francis
