Orange Peel District 5180 Sept. 24, 2021 Meeting

Special note to all----A second missed meeting very late flight home...coming in the door close to 1am. Sorry, but getting up before 6 wasn't going to happen!

Welcome

--Celebrating Peace Corps week!

--Visiting Rotarian Tom Cicchini, District Polio Plus Chair and Chuck Thompson, RC Folsom

--Visitors Brenda Epperly (HART) and Barry Ross OV Park & Rec.

Announcements

--Super Pins were handed out only because the bell was returned!

--Community Food Drive at Divine Savior Parking Lot. All non-expired food accepted. Monetary donations welcome as well. All goes to the Orangevale Food Bank. Saturday, October 9 ... 9am to noon. Drive Thru so super easy. Please consider asking neighbors to support as well. With the holidays coming up the demand is way more than usual. Russ & I will be gone (again) but I've already made my donation!

--Ann H. shared a 3 minute video by Sophia Smith who was out outbound RYE student a year ago --Friday, Oct. 1 is our monthly Food Bank Service. Please let Prez Dennis know if you are able to help!

Polio Plus Society – three members were given certificates for becoming members of the Polio Plus Society, Bill W., Don G., and Tommy P. Thank you all. Tom Cicchini was there to make the presentations.

Prospector – Don Glover exacted some fines and opened to happy fines. Auctioned off prospector to Bill W.

Our Speaker

Jonathan introduced our speaker, Brenda Epperly. She is the President of the Orangevale-Fair Oaks Homeless Assistance Resource Team (HART). She is a registered nurse from 30+ career of California State Government service, working in medical or behavioral health facilities and running a statewide healthcare program. She conveyed that not all homeless are alike. Human connection with people who care is crucial. Brenda thanked OV Rotary for contributions during the backpack drive, providing backpacks and school supplies for unsheltered school kids and those who do not have a set place to live. NOTE: This club has worked with the Citrus Heights HART team for many years providing a meal during their winter sanctuary at Holy Family Church.

Upcoming Speakers for October

- --Oct. 1 is Ken Spencer. He always talks about fascinating Iphone information and the latest apps.
- --Oct. 8 is Bruce Barber of the Orangevale Library. What the library offers you. Be prepared to join friends of the library.
- --Oct. 15 is Kolby of RYLA sharing her experience.
- --Oct. 22 is Tom Cicchini on Polio Plus Day
- --Oct. 29 is DARK. Visit another club!

Special Thanks to the Rotarians who attended the dedication of the Jane Wise Community Meeting Room. Prez Dennis, Steve Blair, Patty Wolff, Don Morris, Russ & Lorie Rheams, Joni Cyr, Don R., Bert S., and Sue F. attended. It was a beautiful way to celebrate the dedication of our friend Jane. She will always be missed, but not forgotten.

Pictures following thanks to Bob K., Prez Dennis & Patty W.

The following pages are from the club meeting, dine around and Jane Wise Dedication.

Proclamation

Board of Supervisors

Supervisor Sue Frost HONORING

ORANGEVALE LIBRARY GRAND OPENING And

DEDICATION of the JANE WISE COMMUNITY ROOM

WHEREAS, the town of Orangevale was founded in 1888 and has had a library since 1912; and WHEREAS, the Orangevale Library has an active support group in the Friends of the Orangevale Library who sponsor programs for adults and children shrough book sales and other events, and

WHEREAS. Jane Wise was an active new box of the Friends of the Orangevale Library and was instrumental in letting it be known that a large and contained library was on the wish list and was instrumental in letting it be known that a large-needed for Orangevale for many years; and

WHEREAS, District 4 Supervisory Roger Niello. Roberta MaeGlashan and Sue Frost underst od the rale of librories as community anchors and advocated for an expanded Orangevale Library; and

WHEREAS. In 2015. Sucrements County set axide $750,000 in its Capital Improvement Program to begin the conceptual design phase for the new Orangerale Library and community members were invited to discuss and vote on one of two architextural concepts in December 2015 and January 2016, and

WHEREAS, though fooding warn't available for a new building, renovation designs were the result of a series of community meetings and focus groups in which residents constaintly requisited more space and more amendian to accommodate a multitude of uses and better meet community needs; and

WHEREAS, with the support from the County of Sacraments, Supervisor Prust of District 4, and especially the local Orangevale community, a 3950,000, yearlong removation project is now compile

WHEREAS, the newly expanded Orangeviale Library is now fully ADA accessible, nearly doubles its focoprint from 4.320 square feet to 7.910 square fort and includer new features to better more the community's needs with space designed for stens and children, two study reams, more computers for public use and a new community room, which is dedicated to Jone Wize.

NOW, THEREFORE, I. Sue Frost, Supervisor of the Fourth District, County of Succession io, Sei Brita, on behalf of the Board of Supervisors and the people of Surromean County, computer + ORANGEVALE LIBRARY GRAND OPENING and DEDICATION of the JANE WISE Call COMMUNITY ROOM.

Presented ship 23* day of September, 2023, in Ora

Sum of Frat

Thought for a missing newsletter.....remembering Jane...

The meaning of life is not celebrating your birth, it is celebrating your work. –Amit Kalantri

Jane's dedication to the Orangevale Library was beyond stellar! She was a bulldog, constantly digging, questioning and moving forward. When we couldn't get a new building, she went after what could be done. Thank you Jane, your earthly job is completed.

