

Encinitas Rotary “Animal House”: Financial Responsibilities of Membership

One of the responsibilities of membership in a Rotary Club is fulfilling the minimum financial requirements.
Here’s what you need to know:

COSTS AND EXPENSES

Item	One Time	Weekly	Annually
Membership Dues			$250
Lunch Fee		$ 19
Non-eating Fee		$ 8
Paul Harris Contribution	$50
Initiation Fee	$50

1. Annual dues are $250, and are due and payable July 1.
2. New member dues are prorated at the quarter (after Oct. 1)
3. New members pay an initiation fee of $50 (this is a one-time fee)
4. New members are assessed $50 for a Paul Harris contribution (this is a one-time mandatory charge and the club matches the donation for a $100 contribution)
5. Lunches are $19 a week and are billed monthly; per meal
6. If you prefer not to eat lunch you pay $8 and entitles you to coffee and dessert; per meal, billed monthly
7. Our annual holiday party is approximately $45 a person.
8. Our annual President demotion party is approximately $55 a person.
9. Members are presented their bill the first of each month and are expected to keep current.
10. First time payment due, total $350. Annual Membership Dues will be prorated based on month joined.
11. Voluntary recognition fine (birthdays, promotion, etc.) Example: $1-$5 contribution.
12. Discretionary donations and other optional social activities.
