CREATE HOPE
in the WORLD

February 15, 2024

Volume 78, Number 21

Thursday's Program

Safe Deliveries in a Time of War

We are meeting via Zoom this week. Our guest speaker will be Karin Davies from the Rotary Club of Del Mar. Karin will be joined by her colleague, Pat Bromberger, for a presentation titled "Safe Deliveries in a Time of War."

The Rotary Club of Del Mar has partnered with Gondar Fasiledes Rotary Club and the University of Gondar Hospital in Ethiopia on Rotary grants to ensure that much-needed sterile drapes and instruments are available for mothers and babies during and after deliveries.

Looking Ahead

NCFPD Station Tour

We have a special opportunity next week. Instead of a meeting, we will be touring North County Fire Protection District Station #1. The station is located at 315 East Ivy Street in downtown Fallbrook. Watch your email in the week to come for more information about signing up for the tour.

Students of the Month

Fallbrook Union Elementary School District

The Students of the Month from Maie Ellis Elementary School were our guests at last week's meeting. Camila Guzman and Grayson Legg, both sixth graders, were recognized for their hard work and leadership. Principal Claudia D'Leon shared a bit about each of these outstanding students and then Camila and Grayson told us about their school work and their plans for what are sure to be bright futures.

Getting to Know You

Monika Hazel

One of our newest club members, Monika Hazel, gave her "Who Am I?" talk at our last meeting. Monika is the Superintendent of Fallbrook Union Elementary School District. We got to learn a bit about her background, family, and professional life. She has an active family that enjoys travel, and Monika is quite the baker. Sounds like we should give her a call the next time we are in need of an apple pie!

Quote of the Week

Motherhood is the biggest gamble in the world. It is the glorious life force. It's huge and scary—it's an act of infinite optimism.
