Thursday's Program

Four-Way Test Essay Contest

We are back at Grand Tradition this week. Club President Kimberly Huesing will be our guide as we hear from students in the Fallbrook Union Elementary School District. The students will be sharing their entries in our Four-Way Test Essay Contest. The students have selected an essay topic of interest to them and have related that topic to the tenets of the Four-Way Test. It's always interesting to see how the students make that connection.

Looking Ahead

Next Week – Warrior Warehouse

We are meeting via Zoom next week. Larry and Linda Sundram will update us on the work of the Warrior Warehouse. The warehouse started in 2005 as the first Rotary Club ever chartered on an active military base. Their focus is helping families aboard Camp Pendleton. The volunteer staff members pick up furniture and housewares from veterans, Rotarians, and supporters of the military. Donations are stored at the Warrior Warehouse on Camp Pendleton. Every Friday morning, the warehouse is open so that young families can select from a wide assortment of goods free of charge.

Community Service

April 26 – Arts in the Park

The annual Arts in the Park will be on Sunday, April 26, at Live Oak Park. Our Rotary club has once again volunteered to help at the popular Walking Stick table where children can decorate their own walking sticks. All supplies are furnished by the event coordinators, but you are welcome to bring artificial flowers, stickers, etc., that can be used to decorate the sticks. The event is from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

We have three time slots and need four volunteers in each group. Bonus... You may sign up for more than one group! The time slots are:

- Group 1 - 10:45 AM to 12:15 PM
- Group 2 - 12:15 PM to 1:45 PM
- Group 3 - 1:45 PM to 3:15 PM

There will be sign-up sheets at our meeting or you can contact Diana Wiggins via email at: dewiggins52@gmail.com
Or give her a call at: 760-458-7264

There is limited parking at the park, but this event draws a big crowd. Shuttle buses are available from Maie Ellis School and Potter Jr. High beginning at 10:45 AM.

Come out and lend a hand. Let your inner artist out for some fun!

Quote of the Week

We have a powerful potential in our youth, and we must have the courage to change old ideas and practices so that we may direct their power toward good ends.
