Thursday's Program

Miss Fallbrook Pageant

We are back at Grand Tradition this week. We'll hear all about the Miss Fallbrook Pageant from Sherri Trombetta, who joined us from the Fallbrook Village Rotary. The meeting will include a Meet and Greet with the pageant contestants. Rotarians will also have an opportunity to sponsor a contestant to help them along in the pageant. Kind of like the sponsors of the participants in The Hunger Games, except with really nice dresses and without the weapons.

Looking Ahead

Next Week – TBD!

We meet via Zoom next week. The meeting topic is TDB. "What's TBD?" you ask. It's an abbreviation of some sort. "But what's the topic?" you ask. Well, we're not going to tell you. Everyone needs a few surprises in their life, so The Rotary Club of Fallbrook is happy to provide you with this one. It's certain to be something very cool, so be sure to Zoom in for the meeting.

Otherwise you could end up with FOMO, which stands for Fear of Missing Out. That one we know, so we're giving it to you. You're welcome.

Serving Our Community

The Big 250!

On July 4th, our country had its 250-year birthday, and our club was all in. Thanks to everyone who helped to make our Independence Day events such a success. We served over 360 people at our 6th annual Pancake Breakfast and Dog Show. The breakfast was tasty and the canines were a hit. An estimate 1400 people attended our evening Celebration and Drone Show. The drones lit up the sky, and there was food, drink, music, and plenty of fun. Both events provided members of our community a chance to celebrating in style, and our club raised funds for worthy organizations. Check out our club website for pictures from the events.

And They're Off!

RCOF at the Del Mar Races

On Thursday, July 30, it's off to the races. Club members will gather at Del Mar to see the thoroughbreds race. Transportation will be via the Silvergate bus, so no need to fight the traffic. Members will sit in the Stretch Run Grill with table service for food and drinks. Cost is $20.00 per person. Budd has a limited number of tickets, so if you want to come let him know ASAP. Contact Budd Sutliff to RSVP: Phone 760-822-2600 or email him at buddsutliff@aol.com

Quote of the Week

The failure to invest in youth reflects a lack of compassion and a colossal failure of common sense.
