Guest Speaker: Kevin Barry– Head Hunter

No, Kevin is not a cannibal.

Trained as an accountant, Kevin moved quickly in senior executive recruitment; which has some wonderful perks: “We always travel first class and stay in the best hotels to meet the chiefs of our client firms”.

Kevin has had a 35 year long career in executive search. Highlights include building up his start-up to 9 partners and 50 staff by 1970 and the merger with the world's largest such firm with 44 global offices in 1976 for which he was Chairman.

While the process has changed over the years (advertisements are not used now), the key is still finding the right cultural match between the position and the candidate for the position.

A/g Sergeant-at-arms

Ed Parker stepped ably up to the mark to impose his authority on the club; dishing out fines right left and centre – and the jokes:

First man “This is a scottish breathalyzer”.
 Second man: “How does it work?” First “If you like the sound, you have drunk too much.”

Helen Ryan, District Governor Elect 2017-2018 with her husband, Mike.

The 4-way Test - Of the things we think, say and do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
