PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Something a little different this week. Our little club is experiencing diminished attendances because many members are away on holidays. So what does one do? Go to the pub of course! Our thanks to Mark Miller who organised a table at the Kingston Hotel Richmond before going on holidays himself. A gaggle of twelve members and partners had a very sociable and pleasant evening.

Next week is a normal meeting with a guest speaker. The following week we are having our meeting on TUESDAY night (24th Oct) with the Rotary Club of Glenferrie who meet at the Kooyong tennis centre. The twist is that I will be conducting the meeting at the suggestion of the Glenferrie president, Richard Blakeman. It promises to be a very interesting meeting. The guest speaker is a minister of religion talking about the history of sheep farming in Australia – an interesting slant on caring for your flock!

That's all for now but read the bulletin for program, duties and the markets roster.

Ken Maher

Bound for Young Mums Program

David Shave (Yarra Bend Rotary) and Dominique Elliott (Swinburne) take delivery of boxes of baby wipes from Rotary's Donations in Kind (DIK) warehouse. The baby wipes are bound for the Swinburne Young Mums Program and will be used to fill special baby boxes to assist new mothers in remote northern Australian communities.

Trivia Night

A reminder that Yarra Bend Rotary members are invited to attend the Trivia Night tomorrow - Saturday 14th October from 6:30pm at Chambly House – 405 Camberwell road, Camberwell. It's organized by the Chinese Methodist Church of Camberwell. And It's an opportunity for Rotarians to tell our neighbours about the many things we achieve to help out our local community. Let's go dressed as 'Community Superheroes' in our new Yarra Bend polos, vests, and caps.

Report from Nepal – Bright Futures Community Centre

Yarra Bend Rotary's - Director International, Isabel Armer has returned to Nepal this month to do more work in local communities around Katmandhu. She sent through the following brief update:

"Everything is going well. Liz and Sue are doing a great job with the holiday program. At first classes were small because lots of kids visit their family back in the village.

The theme this year is frogs and I have some interesting video clips to show classes. My favourite class is the evening kinder class which just love listening to Liz, except one little three year old who fell asleep for the whole lesson.

The younger children also like reading books and each day there is time before lessons for reading."

Hope all is well

Isabel
