

RYLA

for Ages 18–28

Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA), a 7-day residential program designed for individuals aged 18 to 28 who aspire to leave an indelible mark on the world.

Immerse yourself in a meticulously crafted experience that connects you with influential luminaries and captivating mentors. This intensive program is your gateway to a world of possibilities, where dynamic presentations, interactive workshops, and immersive exercises ignite your passion and hone your skills. RYLA is your portal to boundless growth, self-belief, new experiences and empowerment.

To embark on this life-changing journey, aspiring leaders and individuals aged 18 to 28 are invited to apply. RYLA acceptance is based on endorsement by a local Rotary Club, so reach out to the Rotary Club of Jerrabomberra for more information.

Objectives of RYLA include delving into Leadership Theory, Communication, Resilience, Mental Health, Values & Ethics, Leadership in Service & Community, Youth Leadership, Goal Setting/Visioning, Conflict Resolution, and Mindfulness. This comprehensive curriculum is delivered through engaging presentations, hands-on workshops, and thought-provoking exercises.

What sets RYLA apart is its focus on tangible takeaways for participants. As a RYLArian, you will:

- » Build communication and problem-solving skills
- » Discover strategies for becoming a dynamic leader in your workplace and community

- » Learn from community leaders, inspirational speakers, and peer mentors
- » Unlock your potential to turn motivation into action
- » Have fun and form lasting friendships
- » Build on your existing leadership skills
- » Encourage further development of your own talents and abilities
- » Be reminded of your responsibility to your communities and the world

RYLA is not just a leadership program; it's an experience that fosters lifelong friendships, provides supportive mentors, and pushes you out of your comfort zone. It's an opportunity for self-reflection that will improve your life. Why not give it a go?

Join RYLA and take the first step towards a future defined by leadership, growth, and positive impact.
