MARKET REPORT

It was a soggy Saturday at the Market with the crowd down on Last week. Annette, Kaz, Eleanor and Chris were running the show and Kaz was keen to let all know that he was NOT the last to arrive. We had 3 full wallets handed in and three happy customers when they came to collect them. The Market customers seemed to be coping with the downpour and several children enjoyed the puddles.

We sold:

Green Bags 31

Red Bags 1

Bottles of Water

Table Hire 16

Donation $20

Gross Total taken $181

Expenses to Annette $22.50 for 2xSlabs Water and Ice.

Net Total $158.50

Sergeant

Veena once again relieved us of our week's small change.

CHRISTMAS PARTY AT " Dirty Dicks"

A large group of happy Jerrabomerrean Rotary Club Members assembled at the Harmonie German Club with an evening of fun. We had an even of laughter and fun with a couple of our members showing their skills on stage. We saw Cathy up there 3 times and David Stevens showed us a bit of cross dressing.

We all had lots of fun. Thanks go to Cathy for doing the organising.

JOKE

Reaching the end of a job interview the HR manager of a large organisation asks the young engineer "and what starting salary are you looking for? About $125K a year depending on the benefits says the young man. The interviewer asks "what would you say to seven weeks annual leave, full medical Insurance with the company matching to 50% of your yearly superannuation and a company car renewed every two years?"

The young man sits up and says "Are you kidding?" The Manager replies "Yeah, but you started it."
