MARKET REPORT

Note changes for Market on 23 December.

It was a beautiful sunny morning, as the JRC team arrived and got into action. Paul and Sue had visiting Rotarian David Bailey along to re-acquaint himself with the market routine, but we all got confused when David Parkinson also turned up for his rostered duty, giving us four able bodied and enthusiastic volunteers for the morning.

The morning was pretty much a standard day at CRFM, with enquiries as to where the blue berries were, and disappointed enquiries for blue berries' after 8.30am when they were all sold out. A couple of ATM seekers dropped by, and many customers were interested in when the last markets were for this year and when the markets would reopen in 2018. See below for answers. Also the Christmas craft market and Hand Made markets were on and resulted in many people parking near our market and seeking directions.

A lady's purse was handed in, and claimed by a very relieved shopper an hour later! and an old style 'flip phone' was handed in which required some detective work on David B's part (called the last number dialled and advised person answering we had the phone with that number. That person then contacted to lady owner who was not aware she had even lost it, and she came back to the markets to claim it).

Table hire reached 20, with a nice $100 collected and other sales were steady, with water quite popular. Next week there is a need for more water (at least one slab) and of course ice. Bag stocks look ok.

Important dates:

Last market is on Saturday 23 December (this is the Christmas market – there is no twilight market). The market on the 23rd starts at 6.30am so the JRC volunteers for that day will need to set up earlier than usual, and be manning the carpark gate by 6.30am.

First market for the new year is 13 January 2018.

Stall holders party with Hall RC and Jerra RC is on Saturday 16 December after the markets.

Takings for 9 December Total $254 - Tables $100, Green Bags $64, Red Bags $10, Water $60, and a donation of $20

Tonight's Meeting Special Topic was an in-service by Paul & Paul on our new BBQ. A few important points to keep in mind were the difference in the braking system on the new trailer from the old one and be sure to disconnect the gas hose from the BBQ before pushing the BBQ back in the trailer. Chris had printed and laminated a sign reminder to keep this in mind.

There will be labels indicating where supplies such as fire extinguisher and first aid kit are to be kept.

GENERAL DISCUSSION

Anne Davis spoke generally on Friends of Rotary - Personally she would like to contribute more as a Friend and wants to be more engaged in club activities.

Some suggestions were to perhaps have more access to our club website. Although there are guidelines for Friends of Rotary, they may be outdated and need to be updated to reflect Friends of Rotary today.
