The Newsletter of Jerrabomberra Rotary
RI District 9710

Well the final meeting of the year saw us celebrate Christmas with a pot luck dinner and the secret Santa. As expected the numbers were way down with people heading off early to take full advantage of the festive season

Last Meeting

Charge to Australia was expertly delivered by Mez (welcome back).

Apologies -lots and lots of members were away, however that was to be expected given the proximity to Christmas

Please remember folks, to let John Askew know if you are an apology no later than Tuesday as he orders food for you!

Guests - Sandra Robey

Reports no reports at the meeting

Dear Everyone,

PLEASE Don't forget! I Would love market reports to be sent to me by Sunday afternoon so I can complete the Jerraganda by Monday each week.

Also any photos or interesting content you would like to share with the club will help me create an interesting weekly read and would be greatly appreciated— just email to me on:

david.parkinson@cordelta.com

Please note our website now has a calendar of events. If anyone would like to post something on the calendar please email the secretary and if approved it will be posted.

Market Report

The market trio this week were Paul Robey, Wendy and John. All stall spaces were occupied which resulted in a large crowd for the day, with the public seeking directions to the blueberry man and the delicatessen for Christmas hams. We also had a guest appearance by Sue and Peter Jarvis.

Found items - set of car keys - claimed, pair of glasses - not claimed.

Lost - Young girl who was reunited with her mother, set of car keys - not handed in.

Sales:

Green Bags - 32 units

Red Bags - 6 units

Water - 42 units

Table Hire - $125

Donation -$8

Total $311

Sufficient stock of Red and Green Bags. There is 2.5 slabs (60bottles) of water, this is sufficient for weekend of the 23rd December. Remember to bring bag of ice.

NOTE: Due to the Summernats there is a time change for 23/12/17 markets start at 6:30am and finish 11.00am, need to adjust those alarm clocks to an hour earlier. Also access is only by Old Wells Station Road.

Attended the Farmers Market Christmas lunch, good food and good company.

Please note the new market roster has been compiled and distributed.

Liz and Mez take a break

It was great to see Liz and Mez at the meeting. Mez gave a lovely talk explaining that they will be taking a break from Rotary for a while and getting out around the country to visit friends and kick up their heels a bit. Both ladies have been incredible members of our club from the very early days and whilst they won't be around for a bit will remain friends of the Club. We will miss them very much, but I'm sure everyone joins me in wishing them the best for the next chapter!

Secret Santa

Bruce has kindly compiled a slide show which can be viewed at the following link:

In the mean time check out dome of the photos of the fun had by all on the night

Weekly Joke

Jennifer was a pretty 18 year old girl. In the week before Christmas she sauntered up to the curtain counter, and was trying to decide which of the many types of tinsel she would buy. Finally, she made her choice and asked the spotty youth who was manning the fabric section. 'How much is this gold tinsel garland'.

The spotty youth pointed to the Christmas mistletoe above the counter and said, 'This week we have a special offer, just one kiss per metre'.

'Wow, that's great', said Jennifer, 'I'll take 12 metres'.

With expectation and anticipation written all over his face, the boy measured out the tinsel, wrapped up the garland, and gave it to Jennifer.

She then called to an old man who had been browsing through the Christmas trees and said, 'My Grandpa will settle the bill.'
