Fayetteville Rotary Club Meeting

Welcome: President Andy McBain opened this week's meeting at 6:30 PM, welcoming all to the Fayetteville Rotary Club (FRC), and leading all in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Meeting Prayer and Meal: Drew Young gave the meeting/meal invocation. The meal included Fried Chicken with pepper gravy, dirty rice and mixed salad and dressings. It was quite tasty.

Rotary Song and Rotary Minute: The club did not sing a song. Drew Young provided Today in History. Today in 1264 King Henry III was captured by his brother in law Simon de Montfort at the battle of Lewes. In 1796 English Physician Edward Jenner gave the first Small Pox vaccination. In 1897 Guglielmo Marconi sent the first wireless telegraph communication. It was today that Jimmy Dean died and Jimmy Hoffa disappeared.

Attendance & Guests: There were 8 members and one guest Bobby Marcello present for the meeting.

Health and Happiness: There were several Happy Bucks given. Joe Running gave a Happy Buck to have President Andy back. Dave Baggett gave a Happy Buck for Mother's day. Drew Young gave a Happy buck for his plans to go to New York in June to see his wife.

Club Program: The program for the evening was a review of Club events. Past District Governor Dave Baggett gave a multiple Paul Harris Fellow Award to Jim Sebring. Andy McBain that August 4th, we will hold the annual Joe Walker Fayetteville Rotary Club Family Golf Tournament at Kings Grant Golf Course. Joe Running is printing labels to send notification letters to past players and Kings Grant residents. Dave Baggett explained how members would be scheduled to provide programs to make the meetings more interesting the next Rotary year. Andy reminded everyone that next week's meeting, 21 May, is the Linear Park Cleanup and R Burger will provide the meal. We will meet at 5:30 behind the downtown library across the creek at the fountain to begin the cleanup ending at the park.
