Reports

Club Service Allan : Now confirmed that we have been given the opportunity to do two fundraising BBQ's, 1st July and 15th July at the Seaside Sounds Events, John Laws Park, other side of Surf Club.

Charles : Did a great job chairing the meeting! I think he might have mentioned something as well but Ross did not note it, so maybe I was just imagining that.

Ross: Collected six microscopes from Prof. Suzzie Owen, at Griffith University and they will be sent to Ossu High School, East Timor, Bren's mother will be looking after them in the meantime before they can be packed in a shipping container to be sent.

Morgan: The Robina Masters store, will become a new Bunnings store by Christmas and we will look at the possibility at getting in there to do BBQ's!

David, Scooter Project: RC Hope Island is interested in becoming involved in the Scooter Project and will report back in coming weeks.

Birthdays : Happy 70th Birthday to Trevor May for tomorrow !!!

Reports cont.

Rotary Foundation Andy: PHF breakfast next week, presenting two new PHF's

Membership Colleen: 46 members current, 39% female.

Ron Mullins as Chair of GG Committee: Will be attending the Currumbin Coolangatta Tweed Club now on 31st May, Dinner meeting to present on the CCSS project. He is inviting all members to join him: 5.30pm at Twin Towns Services Club, Ladies Lounge of the Sports Bar ($17 for dinner)

Luca YEP: Last week went to 6km Cross Country District Qualifications, and came 6th resulting in entry to regionals. Also went to a Buddhist temple for lunch on the weekend with Eric & Kaye.

Jennie: Provided a sample of a Club shirt to look at.

Guest Speakers – Anna Dupont & Michael Elisha from Salerno Law on Cryptocurrencies.

Mateo is at the biggest Global Crypto Currency Exchange Meeting in NYC.
Digital “gold” and “silver” services now available for reduced cross border costings and increased speed of payment.

Data is stored on many servers not the traditional single server.

Over 1500 cryptocurrencies currently.

Storing Cryptocurrencies works in hot or cold wallets with variable levels of security.

Risks range around liquidity and volatility amongst others.

Regulation now exists in Australia.

Investment approaches vary with the cryptocurrency being considered more a type of share than a currency - more an asset than a currency.

Heads & Tails Winner: Colleen
