Allan played a current RI promotional video
Topic: Understanding Millennials - the future of Rotary
Millennials are born in 80s and 90s
The "me" generation and the selfie
Life goals of contribution are clear
How they communicate their passions is through social media
Values over profit
Communicating "WHY?" is vital
Development of Millennial emerging leaders is a useful focus of future focussed organisations
They genuinely believe they can change the world
An amazing value proposition is available from this generation
Let's see what's possible.
