The local care organisations recognised on the night, their proud representatives and each nominee as their individual outstanding carer are listed below:

Currumbin Valley Riding for the Disabled:

Nominee : Allaine Stent Speaking: Shirley Jacobs

Currumbin Community Special School:

Nominee: Nicola Wassell Speaking: Camille Curtis

Caningeraba State School- special needs section:

Nominee: Lisa Westwood Speaking: Sharon Goudkamp

Carers Queensland – Burleigh Heads Area :

Nominee: Connie O'Malley Speaking : Max Vardenaga

Gold Coast Polio Network:

Nominee: Lynette Glover Speaking: Joan Radanovic

Touch Football Specialised:

Nominee: Anne Blank Speaking: Graeme Clancy

Each representative spoke of the involvement of their own nominee for the evening. This was a most moving presentation as the folk nominated invariably gave over and above themselves, often as volunteers and often under much stress.

Each representative and nominee was provided with dinner on the evening and the nominee was provided a number of dinner vouchers free of charge at the Burleigh Heads Surf Club. It was a wonderful evening providing a formal opportunity to say a simple, public thank you to our local caring organisations and their outstanding officers.

Our club leader for the evening Club Service Director, Allan Barnett, ably and actively led a small planning group preparing for this marvellous celebration for the first time in the club's history.

DG Michael, President Catherine, GCCC Div. 12 Councillor Pauline, Karen Andrews MP representative, Margot, and each Carer nominee.

Around the District and beyond

The annual district conference is on weekend of 6-8 May in Ballina -

<http://www.rotary9640.org/Stories/registration-is-now-open-for-the-district-9640-conference> - details on this link. For all new members and those who have never attended - do try to go as you will learn so much more about what Rotary does and the best thing is there is a Bush dance on the Saturday night! You can of course just go along for the day and not pay anything at all - so what better way to entertain your family and friends? Register just so they have the numbers of people attending. Anyone can go - you don't have to be a Rotarian (yet....).
