Past President Betty Waznis opened with a history of the club using pieces of the Powerpoint created by Diane and Brian Wages. She included the first club president and the Eisenhower visit in her highlights.

Jim Biddle then reviewed his experience as president in 1983-84. In his year, Franz Dorninger (now living in Mexico), Diane Shockley (still on the Hill Road) were mentioned. Jim sponsored Diane Flint Wages, who went on to become our first woman president.

Jerry May reviewed his year (1991-1992) by mentioning the Shamrock award, the 75th year anniversary medallion for the city, inducting Brad Wilson (with Bud ad Dick in attendance) and the Terry Tanaka RI award.

Lisa Johnson (2010-11) talked about her 15 new members, starting the evening club, starting THIX, and writing a weekly presidents column in the Chulatarian.

News at Noon

Sponsored by: Mauricio Lutteroth

I Eastlake Self Storage is a business with a family tradition that has been passed on to Mauricio Lutteroth. The center has been out there since way back in 1988 when the area was mostly cow pastures. It has not only grown up in size, but in storage center sophistication on site and on line. They offer boat and RV storage, packing materials and various ways to store your stuff as well as being a U-Haul dealer. They have great on line connectivity and their website displays the Rotary emblem. Ask Mauricio about his place.
