RoundTable

What is a “Roundtable” Meeting? It is a time for Rotarians to spend their whole time at a Rotary meeting engaging in conversation and comraderie with their friends in and out of Rotary (guests). Those who attend are treated to 30 to 90 minutes free of the normal meeting agenda of announcements, “recognitions”, singing and listening to a speaker (as fulfilling as that is).

A Roundtable is normally scheduled when it is felt by club leadership that attendance will be low and so a speaker may not have the size of audience that is normal for our club. It is usually at a time around a holiday (this time Easter) when many members are travelling or on vacation.

Video of Meeting at: <https://vimeo.com/261576980>

Sharon Carlson, Director of Emergency Disaster Preparedness for Sharp Healthcare, has a real passion for her job. For example, when she went to Radio Shack (when they were in business) and asked for a princess phone for an analog phone setup in her home, the storekeeper couldn't understand why she wanted it. It turns out that in an emergency, phones that are digital won't work. Only someone who has a passion for the subject would not only think about that but actually take the action to make her family safer.

Other suggestions she made for taking action to prepare for an emergency include: have two places for your family to meet up in an emergency; have an out of state or region contact that your family would use to stay in touch; always have two weeks of your prescriptions and the gas tank in your car at least half full. The list goes on.

Lastly, go to ReadySanDiego.org and put the app on your phone. It will help in a disaster

Sponsored by: Zaneta Encarnacion

Everyone knows Zaneta. She has been climbing ladders this past few years and is now Executive Director of the Southwestern College Foundation in the heart of our community. The College is really into workforce development and can always use your help. Also, the Foundation is planning for the first-ever alumni group and if anyone here is an alum, let Zaneta know as she has plans for you. The Foundation seeks perpetuating funds for the college endowment, to guarantee scholarships for future generations, promote student success, enrich the student experience, and to keep Zaneta employed.
