Elite Athlete Training Center

Dave Stow is the Vice President of Venue Operations at the Chula Vista Elite Athlete Training Center. Dave has been at the Chula Vista Center for 23 years including 21 years with the United States Olympic Committee. He currently oversees Venue and Facility Management, Security, Food Service, project management, and all service contracts. A significant responsibility to the performance of the athletes is oversight of new construction or venue enhancement including ensuring all athletic venues meet international sport requirements. The site includes Archery, Beach Volleyball, BMX Cycling, Field Hockey, Rowing, Rugby, Soccer, Tennis, Track and Field venues and support services of Sports Medicine, Weight Room, Sport Science, Dining Hall, and Housing. Chula Vista is the only facility in the world with 2 Olympic replica BMX tracks. Dave has been a delegation member of 8 Olympic Games and 2 Pan American Games. Dave is also the Director of Sport for the ANOC World Beach Games coming to San Diego in 2019. This 15 sport, 5 day event, will showcase 1,300 elite athletes representing approximately 100 countries. In addition to Olympic sport, Dave worked on the Pre-Game and Post-Game field production crew for 3 Super Bowls. Dave also competed internationally for USA Gymnastics.

Leah Blankenship, a native Chula Vistan, has been running Carehouse for twenty years. They serve those homeless folks who have no other source of support. They take them on trips to Disneyland, provide them food and toys at Christmastime at a “Santa Drive-by” for those living in their cars, and provide temporary shelter when they can. They teach those they serve to develop their capacities to give to others as a way to help them in their struggles. They are faith-based and therefore do not receive government funding or grants. Monarch School is the source of many of those they work with. They have 40-50 clients on average and have serves thousands.

They have partnered with the following organizations: Monarch School, YMCA, The Rock Academy, Maui Boys and Girls Club, The Village Church, Toys for Tots, Alpha Gamma Delta, Fletcher Hills Presbyterian Church, Las Primeras/Bonita and Modern Woodmen of America. Leah just returned from Maui. California and Hawaii are two of the three states with the most homeless per capita.

News at Noon

Sponsored by: Kathi Tanaka Mits

Immediately across Church Avenue from the Richard Arroyo Mail Slot is the classy dental studio where the Tanaka family have long practiced their trade. Kathi Tanaka is eminently trained and educated in the family tradition of the University of Southern California the same as venerable #1 father, Terry. And she gives you that disarming smile the whole time that you are being drilled, flossed, and polished. Kathi promises the highest level of tooth care and the protection of your brightest smile. Kathi has a wonderful husband, Mark, and 2

Miscellany

This is Mike Green multi-tasking. He can listen to what is being said at the podium and review information on his smartphone at the same time. It's better than sleeping!!!

Congratulations to Jim Biddle on his 800th (DCCC) "News at Noon"

Nominating Committee Chair Chris Lewis announcing the new members of the club board as Donna Moss, Ralph Rodriguez and Kathi Mits and the new club secretary will be Neisha Hernandez. They assume office July 1, 2019.

Ronald MacDonald House will be December 12.

Troy Ray, Carlos Sanchez and Jim Biddle all returned home from trips recently. They weren't at the same place.

We need a volunteer for Model United Nations, a district sponsored program we have supported for many years. New leadership s needed. If interested, see Bob Silvas, Chuck Bevan or Jim Biddle.

Bob Silvas presided at the meeting, Dan Dredla was a little under the weather. Did you see Bob's "Confession Time"? We are in for some great graphics next
