U.S. Census

The 2020 Census is right around the corner. Our community has to be ready to be counted in order for us to receive our fair share of federal funding and representation.

Come ready to learn, ask questions, and interact with Partnership Specialist staff from the U.S.

FOUNDATION FRIDAY

Hear about the good work Rotary International is doing all over the world.

Foundation Chair Lane Pearson will share an update with the club.

This week's Jim Biddle News at Noon sponsor:

Chuck Bevan joined Rotary in 1985 and became its President in 1996-97. He worked as Vice President Sales in the Union Bank Business Trust Department for the San Diego region, his career following the growth of the popular 401k plan.

After retirement from the bank in 2003 he went to work as the back office and official paper pusher for Jim Biddle at The Securities Center, retiring again in 2016.

Chuck now enjoys working on his 67 Mustang that he bought new, and operating his world famous Sweetwater Valley Lines HO railroad. He and his wife Marilyn enjoy visits to Colorado and their two grandchildren and flying to Chicago to say hi to daughter Carolyn and her husband Justin. In both cases, they are spoiled rotten. Thank you Chuck!

This week's drawing winners:

Top: With Chuck Bevan—
Jim Biddle

Left: Jesse Fernandez
wins two weeks in a row.

Below: Bob Bliss finally wins again.

GOOD-BYE POLIO
THANKS ROTARY

Kids Included Together CEO Torrie Dunlap shares her passion for her work to promote acceptance of differences by teaching people how to meaningfully include children with disabilities or complex needs on a national level.

KIT works with major organizations to create and sustain inclusive environments in which all children can thrive. In doing so, they help drive the national conversation around disability inclusion in child and youth programs.

Daniel Wood, with the Tijuana Rotary Club, came to visit our club and invite us to attend their gala event in October.

He provided us with a little bit of history. While many of us know our club was the sponsor for the Tijuana Club—many did NOT know that they asked us after the Mexico City Club declined their request to form because they deemed the city of Tijuana unworthy in the 1930's.
