

Women in Coffee and Microfinance Tour: Guatemala and Chiapas, Mexico February 17 - 27, 2017

Feb 17: Arrive in Guatemala City

Feb 18: Tour Micro Credit Program in Department of Chimaltenango: Meet the new cooperative of women.

Feb 19: Travel to Chiquimula

Feb 20: Visit Association of Integrated Services of Quezaltepque Adisque: A 164 family co-op located in pristine mountain area, with a self-sustaining agroforestral production system. Their mission is to create economic development partnerships, to practice sustainable environmental techniques, and to add value to their product and market coffees. Certified by Manos de Mujer.

Feb 21: Travel to Panajachel to visit La Voz Que Clama en el Desierto

Feb 22: Travel to Antigua. Free day to tour the city

Feb 23: Travel to Tapachula, Mexico

Feb 24: Meet the CASFASA Co Op: Situated in a cloud forest, this co-op was founded in 1986 shortly after the birth of an indigenous rights movement. They were one of the first certified coffee communities in the world.

Feb 25: Travel to San Cristobal de las Casas, Chiapas

Feb 26: Free Day to explore San Cristobal de las Casas

Feb 27: Return to the US

$1600.00 includes transportation, food, and lodging for 9 days.

Contact Karen Cebberos (619) 889-1997 karencebberos@gmail.com

1514 7th Ave. Apt. #105, SD, CA 92101

