The food collected will support military families and veterans in bringing meals home through Feeding San Diego's Feeding Heroes initiative. Feeding San Diego works with a network of partners that serve the military community to provide nutritious meals to active-duty military families and veterans. According to Feeding America, in 2020, nearly a quarter (24%) of active-duty service members experienced food insecurity, and 1 in 9 working-age veterans live in food insecure households.

Feeding San Diego's most needed food items include:

- Peanut Butter
- Pantry Staples
- Ready-To-Eat Meals
- Soup

No glass containers, please.
