From John Fistere:

Fellow La Mesa Rotarians,

This is to let you know that Teresa and I are doing well and have recently moved into a Retirement Community. We had been planning to do that for some time, although we were also holding open the option of a live-in caregiver, but that's off the table. Some temporary health issues accelerated the process, and fortunately we had already been doing some research on retirement communities, and our choice was relatively easy to make. We have been in La Vida Del Mar in Solana Beach for about a month now, and the downsizing operation is almost complete. If you want to know anything about our upcoming Estate Sale or the availability of our home for purchase, you can call Michelle Mesker at 619-539-6621.

The activities here are pretty good. Interesting on-site meetings and last Sunday we were part of a group going to see "The Sunshine Boys" at the North Coast Rep. (We are also going to see "Ring Around the Moon", but that's with a different group of friends.)

If you're up around Del Mar or Solana Beach give us a ring. We'd love to see you and maybe have a meal together. The food here is good.

I recently passed a DMV driving test that I requested (mainly to satisfy my family), and so it will be easier to drop down to see you one of these Wednesdays.

Our contact information is
