Embracing the Gift of Empathy Veronica Mussa

Veronica Musa is a lawyer and advocate from Argentina, specialized in human rights. She has worked in several countries and lectured at universities in the US, Argentina, Spain, and the Netherlands.

In the United States, she served as a human rights monitor for the Fair Food Standards Council, in charge of the implementation of the Fair Food Program, the only comprehensive corporate social responsibility program in the agricultural sector of the USA. Previously, she monitored the conditions of confinement of immigrant detainees on behalf of Florida Institutional Legal Services. Veronica has worked for the Truth, Justice, Memory Center of Istanbul, Turkey, and for the Center for Peace Studies in Bogota, Colombia.

She holds two degrees in law from Universidad Nacional de Rosario, Argentina, and an LL.M. in Comparative Law from the University of Florida. Currently, she is a Grillo-Marxuach Family/TRF Scholar at the University of San Diego.

Bikes for Kids Bike Build

A Huge thank you to everyone that came out to help with the Bike Build for our Bikes for Kids giveaway! We had a very fun time at Christian Bros warehouse assembling all of the bikes for the kids. There was a great turnout of La Mesa Rotarians as well as Christian Bros employees and families to help with the bike build. We even had kids and grandkids there to inspect the bikes and test them out. We will be giving all 79 bikes away on Tues Dec 18th.

Paint a Wall – Community Service Saturday Dec 8th 8:00 am - Noon

Come and help us clean up the community by painting over a graffiti-filled wall in La Mesa! Bonnie is working with the La Mesa Police and they have requested our help in painting this wall. The La Mesa Police department will be providing the paint and all of the materials – we just need to do the painting!

Bonnie will have a sign-up sheet at lunch! Even if you can come out for an hour or two – come out and help clean up the city!

Greeting from BIKES FOR KIDS
