INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC COMPETITION

It is time for our Club round of Rotary District 5340’s annual Instrumental Music Competition. This year’s competition will feature five high school age players on flute, violin and viola. These students are serious musicians who are showcasing their talent for us, and competing for spots in the Regional round, to be held on February 27, 2020 in Chula Vista. The Final round of the competition will be held on March 8, 2020 in Carlsbad and will feature a $2500 cash prize.

As judges for this year’s competition, we have four music professionals, all experienced in music teaching and adjudication. They are Connie Almond, Brian Goral, Leslie Olson and Miriam Cole. These folks are all members of the San Diego chapter of the Music Teachers Association of California. Our competitors will benefit greatly from the comments and scoring of these judges.

Since the competition will take up the bulk of our meeting time, lunch will be served starting earlier than normal, at 11:45, and the formal meeting will begin at 12:15. This early start will give the students time for their performances and the benefit of the judge’s comments at the end of the competition.

We expect to have a large number of guests accompanying the contestants so please give a big “Rotary Welcome” to them.
