Voices for Children Carlie Hornback

“Voices for Children, a nonprofit organization primarily funded by private sources, is the only agency designated by the San Diego Superior Court to recruit, train, and supervise CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) volunteers for the foster children in our community. CASAs are empowered by the Juvenile Court to become experts about their case children. More than mentors, CASAs have broad access to legal, medical, educational, and other records and professionals.

CASAs make recommendations to the Court to ensure that the judge is informed about their case children's unique challenges and what they need to be happy and succeed. No prior experience is necessary to volunteer as a CASA—Voices for Children provides all the needed training, plus a dedicated staff supervisor to offer resources and support throughout a volunteer's service. With just 10-15 hours a month, a CASA can create a brighter future for a child in foster care.”
