Club Assembly

President Corner:

First of all I would like to thank everyone on the turn out for the Installation Dinner. We had 82 people who attended. Good time by all.

A quick review of our first Board Meeting on Tuesday July 11th:

Budget: Passed the budget for 2017/18 year.

Pledges: Over $10,000.00 has been pledge for 2017/18 year by our membership which will be collected through fines (way to go.)

Fundraising Ideas: Shoe Drive to be spearheaded by Marsha Starr. We hope to raise $5,000.00. Should start August 1st. Also start working on the Run, Walk or Crawl at Lake Murray later this year. Spearheaded by Becki Schwartz.

District Grants: Bikes for Kids. Dictionary Programs.

Other Items this year: We are working on many more programs this year.

More info in coming months.

Let's have a great Rotary Year:

Bring a guest to one of our meetings.

Let's grow membership.

Talk to you next month.

Thanks-- Jack Dargitz.

New Member Profile

We have a prospective new member to La Mesa Rotary: Bridgette Tabor

Bridgette is a Commercial Insurance Specialist with an emphasis in sales and marketing within the community association industry. She has intimate knowledge of community associations not only as an agent but as a Community Volunteer Leader, having served on her board of directors for a number of years. Bridgette also brings over 16 years of experience in the legal industry working mostly with construction defect litigation and has an understanding of the complexities of the insurance industry concerning these matters.

Bridgette also works with Non-Profit Boards of Directors to improve communication and enhance its ability to relate effectively with one another. She also, maximizing productivity of non-profits by assisting them in enhancing their ability to provide services to their members through clear, concise and on point agendas and meetings.

Bridgette is sponsored by Jen Flynn.

Congratulations to Martin Brickson

Larry Scott pins Martin with his 8th

La Mesa Rotary Shoe Drive

Please help La Mesa Rotary collect gently worn or new shoes. You get to clean out your closet of shoes you no longer want in order to make room for more AND you get to make the world a better place at the same time. The sale of these shoes generates funds which support our numerous charitable projects. Together we can make a difference. Your help is so greatly appreciated!
