The department is very responsive to the needs of our community and is devoted to providing the highest quality professional police services to everyone.

Help collect School Supplies

Martin is trying to collect school supplies to help out some of La Mesa's underfunded schools and school children. He has identified that the months of July & August stores like Staples, Office Depot, Target & Wal Mart have most of their school supplies on sale at blow-out prices! He will monitor their weekly ads and keep us up-to-date on where the best deals are each week.

This week's best deal is on the 70-sheet spiral notebooks. These are on sale for only 25 cents per notebook! These are great notebooks for the schools – Martin is buying these by the case. These are available at STAPLES with a limit of 30 per person or Office Depot with a limit of 12 per person. Target has advertised these but has yet to receive their product.

When you are about and about please stop into any of these stores and help stock up on the school supplies on special! Martin will deliver to the schools when they are back in session.

Congratulations to Dani on her 1st day as our new club President!

And Tim Miller presented Dani a check for $1,000 to City Hope!
