Snooky Rico Hair Stylist and Entrepreneur!

"Snooky Rico, hair stylist and entrepreneur." A little tease.
That is exactly the tease that got me up at 6:30 to make-up at Chula Vista Sunrise when she spoke there.

"Snooky Rico, a hair stylist and entrepreneur, is a founding owner of Rico's on Third in Chula Vista. A cancer survivor, Snooky Rico now makes a huge difference in the lives of many cancer patients through her charity "Loving You Through It."
Snooky lives "Service Above Self!"

How would you react if Mike Rowe, with his Facebook Series
"Returning the Favor, showed up at your business unannounced? You cannot buy that publicity!

Come hear Snooky's remarkable story!"

Help collect School Supplies

I still see only three deals. Maybe later there will be more. 70-page spiral-bound notebooks are available at these stores for 25 cents. If your choice is between "college ruled" and "wide ruled", select wide as K thru 3 use wide and 4-5 use college ruled.

Staples - limit 30

Office Depot - limit 6

Walmart - I think no limit

Target has mixed signals.

The Target in Mission Valley sold me 40 for 25 cents this morning, no problem. Kearny Mesa Target tried to charge me 89 cents yesterday and today. I had a hassle to get them for 25 cents. Target's Sunday, July 8, ad said "Low all season 25 cents" on a picture of the notebook.

Next is picture of a box of "classic colors" crayons. If they are really available for a quarter, buy them. I won't be back to Kearny Mesa. Apparently a "season" at Kearny Mesa is two weeks. Kearny Mesa has a pallet of about 50 cartons of 48 count notebooks. The cartons say "70 ct", but there are only 48 in each carton. They won't sell many if they are 89 cents each.

The other two deals are at Dollar Tree. One is a glue stick- pack of 8. The other is Jot brand filler paper- 200 sheets. Wide ruled preferred. Both $1.u

Rotary District 5340 District Governor

The District Governor provides leadership, inspiration, and guidance to Rotary clubs under the general supervision of the Rotary International Board of Directors. In each jurisdiction or district, the Governor serves as the regional officer of Rotary, fostering success in their district at the club level.

Across the globe, Rotary Districts fluctuate in size and geography. District 5340 spans all of San Diego and Imperial Counties, as well as a portion of Riverside County.

The District Governor is nominated by the Clubs within the region serves as the official representative of Rotary International. The District Governor is chosen by a Selection Committee, which is usually chaired by the Immediate Past District Governor. That committee is responsible for publicizing the nomination process, reviewing nominations submitted, interviewing applicants for the position, and then communicating the results of the selection process to other Rotary members. Learn more about the steps that go into becoming a District Governor.

Each District Governor serves a one year term, but that individual often fills many roles in the lead-up to year as serving as District Governor.
