Brigantine Family of Restaurants

Brigantine Restaurant Group got its start in San Diego in 1969 when Mike Morton Sr. and family opened the first location of the surf & turf centric Brigantine restaurant on Shelter Island (in the space where Miguel's is now). Brigantine Incorporated now employs more than 1,200 San Diegans and operates 17 restaurants in San Diego County, including eight Brigantine Seafood and Oyster Bar locations, six branches of Miguel's Cocina, and three outposts of Ketch Brewing.

In 2015, San Diego's nearly 50 year old Brigantine Restaurant Group beat out proposals from longtime tenant Anthony's Fish Grotto and another from Sunroad Enterprises that included restaurants by the Cohn Restaurant Group (Coasterra) and Consortium Holdings (Born & Raised) to get awarded the redevelopment deal on the prime downtown waterfront project. After more than 70 years serving seafood on San Diego Bay, Anthony's Fish Grotto closed its downtown location after service on January 31, 2018.
