ROTARY CLUB OF CESSNOCK DISTRICT 9670

SCONE TIME AT MARTHAVILLE

Join the Rotary Club of Cessnock for a free morning tea and a chat. It is set in the grounds of Historic Marthaville Cottage. If you are feeling lonely or isolated then come along and make new friends and enjoy a cuppa with deliciously fresh baked scones with jam and dollops of fresh cream. The first trial day was very slow but we had a couple of people taking Advantage and one who may come along to our regular meetings on Thursday nights which will start again in two weeks time

DINNER AT THE KONCZ HOUSEHOLD

Our club's informal dinner was held by the Koncz family. We had Hungarian Chiken Paprikas which apparently went down quite well judging by all the positive comments. But the real winner was Claudia's deserts. There was huge yummy comments and "I must try that one too" comments We had heaps of cheese and stuff with good wine and beer brought along by members to share around. Sadly Helen Rose had Covid and couldn't make it. Hope that you are recovering well Helen. We had our new members along plus Val and David who we haven't seen for a while. Overall it was a successful night amongst friends. Thank you all for coming along and enjoying the first informal gathering for this year.

The Rotary Club of Cessnock is still on the roster for the Hunter Valley Lights up until the 21st January 2022, so check the roster. There isn't as many people as there was around Christmas time but it's still a wonderful place to visit and easier to get around as the crowds are not very big. If you visit you might just run across a couple of pixies on your tour.

The three hard workers behind the scenes for Scone time at Historic Marthaville Cottage held on Fridays at 10 - 12am. Come along and enjoy the free scones.
