ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- President Kay welcomed members back after the Christmas/New Year break.
- Sympathies were extended to Bev Holden whose brother has passed away.
- Kay read a letter of thanks from the Salvation Army for the club's Christmas collection that totalled $690.
- Orders are now being taken for the club Rotary shirts – Kay has samples of all sizes. Please place your order ASAP in order that shirts are available prior to the Conference in March.
- Kay reminded members of the RI President's project for every Rotarian to plant a tree. She is currently following up the possibility of a joint project with Maitland High School.
- Chris reminded members that the club's Golf Day is on Sunday 25th March. Rubix Realty is the major sponsor however more sponsors are needed with options of $1000, $500, or $300. We also need donations for the Silent Auction, the Raffle, and Prizes. Proceeds from the Golf Day are going to Maitland Hospital.
- Chris advised dates for the Netball BBQ which will be the 2nd Saturday of each month from May to September, including the Gala Day on 27th May. The first BBQ date is 12th May.
- The club's Vocational Visit to Hunter Valley Training Company has been rescheduled to 20th February at 5 pm.
- Bev Smith advised that our exchange student, Natasja, is currently on holidays. She will be transferring to Rotary Club of Rutherford Telarah in February, however Bev will continue as her Counsellor.
- James asked for people to let him know if they see any instances of Graffiti around Maitland.
