SPRINGWORD Newsletter

President's report

This is the last newsletter of this very strange year.

Thank you to Marilyn Kenney for putting together such a diverse series of interesting video clips for last Monday's meeting, our final Zoom meeting for the year.

We are looking at the possibility of reintroducing some face-to-face meetings next year, but will hopefully also keep a Zoom option going for those who cannot attend dinner meetings.

Tomorrow at around 11.00am we draw our raffle at Bunnings. This has been a terrific effort which has brought in $5,000, and my thanks to all those who have helped by purchasing and managing the wheelbarrow and selling tickets.

There has been a second meeting of the Australia Day planning group and planning is progressing well. Bill Bowler will send out further details during January,

This coming Monday is our Christmas Party, so generously hosted by Paul and Sue Erikson. I look forward to celebrating the spirit of Christmas with those who will be attending.

For everyone, please enjoy the break, have a safe, fun and family-filled

Christmas, and may 2021 be nothing like 2020!

Jenny Kroonstuiver
President

Thought for the week

This holiday season, no matter what your religion is, please take a moment to reflect on why it's better than all the other ones. Guy Endore Kaiser

Pick-a-card!

Valda Bray was the Pick-a-card winner this week. Sadly, not a joker winner.

Planned meetings for December

- 14 December 2020 – Christmas Party, hosted by Paul and Sue Erikson

We will then be on break until 25 January 2021.

Looking for a volunteer to put together our Rotary Video

From Jenny Kroonstuiver

As part of next year's conference, we have been asked to put together a 3-5-minute video about what our club has been achieving over the past year. I'm looking for a volunteer to do the actual filming and editing – I am happy to work with them in relation to planning the content. I'm also open to suggestions as to what we should include! The film is due to be passed to the Communications Director by the end of January. Please contact Jenny on 0400760094 if you would like to assist.
