President's report

Another week – more COVID. That seems to be the outcome of the daily reports. All plans for resuming face to face meetings are now on hold, and as you will be aware, even our Changeover dinner is now a Zoom event this coming Monday night. Many of the upcoming events have also been cancelled or deferred.

Please wear your regalia, bring a glass of something for the toasts, and join us for a celebratory evening on Monday. Norm has already sent out the Zoom link, and I have reproduced it below:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84607938085>

We will be extremely fortunate in having the new District Governor, Lindsay May, in attendance, and he will give a presentation. I'm delighted that we will also have PDG David Clark attending.

The logistics of presenting awards are a bit challenging, but we will manage! We will still run the raffles and all attendees will be included in the draw. Prize winners will have their prizes delivered during the week.

This will also be our opportunity to welcome and induct our new member, Kevin Richards, who will be a valuable and most welcome addition to our Club.

Bunnings have donated $1000 worth of gift cards in lieu of the cancelled BBQs, so it looks as if we can do another raffle, maybe in time for Christmas.

The Board met earlier this week and has finalized the Club Committees which are shown below.

Have a good week!
Jenny Kroonstuiver

MP Susan Templeman's tribute to Rotary

Earlier this week Norm Kitto distributed Susan Templeman's tribute to Rotary in its 100th year, presented in the House of Representatives on 2 June. Our thanks to Susan for a wonderful tribute which recognises the work of the many clubs across her electorate (and Australia) as well as outlining her own experiences with Rotary.

The Daffodils are flowering

It just goes to show, you can never escape your past.....

Springwood girl to star in School Spectacular

Deana Moalem of Springwood is soon to star in the 1994 Coca-Cola Schools Spectacular to be held at the Sydney Entertainment Centre on November 25 and 26.

Deana, a featured artist, will be singing two songs in the exciting variety show/pageant.

The Schools Spectacular is designed to be a spectacular climax to the International Year of Family celebrations.

Deana will be among 2000 young performers who will showcase cultures from around the world in what has been called the biggest variety show of the year.

The explosion of music and dance ranges in magnitude from a solo blues harmonica player to a 60 piece orchestra, and from delicate a capella to an awesome 750 voice choir. Musical tastes from Amadeus to Elvis will be catered for. Featured groups include the national champion show band and the Public Schools Wind Ensemble which performed at the White House during a US tour.

Deana has been singing and dancing for many years and has ambitions to be a full time entertainer. She has a promising future.

The attractive and talented teenager was also the 1994 Winmalee school captain and just recently finished her HSC exams.

Tickets to the 1994 Coca-Cola Schools Spectacular are available at Ticketek and the Sydney Entertainment Centre.

Deana Moalem
