President's Report

Our last meeting was another really fun night at Springwood. A games night – so appropriate immediately after our huge Antiques, Vintage and Collectables Fair the weekend before the meeting. Jenny Kroonstuiwer organised this event, and a more successful evening would be hard to find. Many thanks to Jenny for her concept and organisation, and to all members, who were brave enough to fight the overwhelming fatigue from the Fair to come to our meeting and fully embrace the games we played. A very noisy evening.

During last week, members from our Club supported the Businesses Expo at the Springwood Community Hub having stands at the Expo, and with Rotary Clubs in the Mountains being a very obvious presence with our own combined clubs stand and customised brochure. It was great to share the event with other Rotarians, and once again promoted the presence and value of Rotary within the community.

All donations received by Rotarians At Work will be donated to the Flood Victims' Appeal after the recent devastation of Cyclone Debbie. The Shop Local campaign was launched, with a website promoting links to local cafes, businesses, etc, which is an App you can download onto your phone and find whatever you need whenever you need it.

The meeting on Monday will be a Club Assembly. This meeting will discuss any issues that members wish to raise, largely related to the current Rotary year, but with the new Rotary year nearly upon us, members can raise issues for that as well. If you wish to discuss an issue, please send an email to our relieving Secretary Paul with the item to be included in a Club Assembly agenda.

Another Bunnings held on the Monday of the long weekend, was a bonus fund raiser for our Club. A quiet, but steady day which should yield a profit nevertheless. Our next Bunnings is on Saturday with the Glenbrook Classic the following weekend. A flurry of activities right at the end of the year!!!

Please register for the Club Changeover ASAP, and if you are attending the District or other Club Changeovers, just let me know.

Have a great week ahead,

Marilyn Kenney
