

Mission Statement:

A club of inspired individuals who translate their passions into actions that improve lives

Vision:

To exemplify Service Above Self

Values:

- LEADERSHIP We are high energy members of a service club providing impactful community leadership.
- DIVERSITY We celebrate diversity, fully represent our communities, and offer all members equitable opportunities to thrive.
- SERVICE We provide opportunities for members to match their skills and passions to purposeful community projects.
- INTEGRITY We consider current issues, measure them against current projects to ensure the greatest impact in the best interests of those we serve.
- FELLOWSHIP We are proud members of Rotary International and Rotary District 5610 and support the values of our larger organization.

Date	Activity	Notes

GOAL: Adopt methods to ensure respectable behavior among all members.

Tracking Success

Date	Activity	Notes

A. Recruit:

1. Always consider the “Fun Factor.” To retain people, members must have fun as they meet and socialize with new people.
2. Continue membership drives. Recall the “invitation” to a meeting is key to exposure.
3. Utilize visual reminders (Rotary pin, shirts, banners, flags, and other regalia) to display the Rotary brand.
4. Increase racial diversity
5. Invite Corporate Membership
6. Continue to recruit younger high-energy members who have more means to contribute time and energy than money.
7. Leadership Institute/new member orientation

B. Retain:

1. Expand mentorship program to engage members to matching members' passions to committees and projects.
2. Encourage long-time members to supply financial support when personal/physical involvement is difficult.
3. Use social media to help inform members.
4. Increase transparency of Board meetings/decisions to club members.
5. Investigate new meeting locations, as necessary based on club expansion.
6. Imbed Rotary International's 'Preventing and Addressing Harassment' course into Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI)/new member orientation.
7. Encourage all existing members to complete the 'Preventing and Addressing Harassment' course
8. Encourage a regular review of positive club culture and etiquette.

PROJECTS

- Signature
- Local
- District
- International

GOAL: Diversify Community Action by selecting a unique one-time or short-term project per year.

Tracking Success

Date	Activity	Notes

GOAL: Implement a refined method of the club’s District Grant Application development process to reach at least one Grant submission per year.

Tracking Success

Date	Activity	Notes

A. Signature Organizations:

1. Continue support of these key organizations and supporting events: Storybook Island (SBI), Black Hills Children’s Home Child Advocacy Center (BHCH-CAC), and Rapid City High School.
2. Ensure all members understand the unique relationships with these organizations and the supporting events.

B. Local (well-developed/long-term) Projects:

1. Continue support of these well-developed local area projects:
 - a. BH Children’s Home Golf and Gala Events
 - b. Rapid City High School Students of Distinction
 - c. Rotary 4-Way Test Essay Contests
 - d. Storybook Island projects and management support
2. Encourage members to brainstorm ideas, vet through Community Action Committee, then Board of Directors, then club members.

C. Local Community Action (one-time/short-term) Projects:

1. Continue support of these community action projects that are one-time, lower logistical planning effort/high volunteer desire projects:
 - a. Highway Cleanup
 - b. Feeding South Dakota
 - c. City Cleanup at Steven's High School
2. Support the emphasis on additional one-time or short-term projects by including a line item in annual budgets.

D. Club lead District Grant Projects:

1. Past President and President-Elect shall serve on the Grants Committee. The Grants Committee will lead the development of a timeline and method of collecting District Grant application ideas from club members.
2. Potential Grant proposals are presented to the Grants Committee, then the Committee makes yah/nay recommendations to the Board for final decision to proceed.
3. Pending Board approval to proceed, Grants Committee will guide those interested in formally writing/submitting a grant to the District.
4. Document progress of potential grants throughout the year for club members to easily follow; recall District Grants have specific due dates per year, set by the district. Invite members to show their support during the development process.
5. With goal of at least one District Grant submission per year, invite club members to measure their ability to support for the duration of the project, pending/after District approval.
6. Research and create a list of other community grants that the club could be eligible to apply for in order to support our projects. For example, MIDCO, Monument Health, Vucurevich Foundation, South Dakota Community Foundation, and Black Hills Area Community Foundation.

E. International Projects:

1. Continue support of these community action projects that are one-time, lower logistical planning effort/high volunteer desire projects.
2. Encourage the club, in partnership with Rotary International, to continue active support of the following:
 - a. Polio Plus
 - b. Tanzania School of St. Jude
 - c. Rotaract and Interact International Projects
 - d. Youth Exchange
 - e. Emergency Response - Shelter Box for international disasters
 - f. Vocational Training Teams, Friendship Exchanges, other exchanges
2. Continue to evaluate and/or support Global Grants with which the District is involved. Current Global Grant that the club maintains an interest in supporting are as follows:
 - a. Hope Haven projects (providing wheelchairs in Philippines, Ukraine, and Romania)
 - b. Whiteclay Arts Makerspace
 - c. Self-help group in India
 - d. End Human Trafficking in District 5610
3. Continue/increase education on potential travel opportunities in support of the above projects.

ROTARY CONNECTIONS

- Programs
- Fellowship
- District & International
- RCC

GOAL: Establish a standing socialization/fellowship schedule with consideration of quarterly pop-up socials.

Tracking Success

Date	Activity	Notes

A. Programs:

1. Encourage learning with intention through club programs and speakers.
2. Improve member usage of the tools available through Club Runner to include, but not limited to, email, event info, and update profile data.
3. Enhance use of public relations through social media, website, and press releases.

B. Fellowship:

1. Consider variable seating arrangements to encourage intermingling among members.
2. Ensure occasional family-friendly socials.
3. Extend the invitation to other Rotary clubs' members and visiting Rotarians.
4. Host events specifically with the intention of inviting Rotaract and/or Interact.
5. Consider invitations to other organization with whom the club collaborates (or with whom the club desires to collaborate).
6. Events include, but are not limited to, socials, transition dinner, friendship exchanges, etc.
7. Invite media/press for applicable events.

C. District and International:

1. Encourage members to attend other Rotary club events.
2. When applicable, encourage members to attend District 5610: Presidents-Elect Training (PETS), District Conferences, Rotary Leadership Institute training (RLI).
3. Encourage members to attend Rotary International Convention and events.
4. Promote Rotary Foundation support, Polio Plus support, other Rotary partnerships.

D. Rotary Community Corps:

1. If/when adopted, promote relations with Rotary Community Corps.
