President's Report:

An update from President Eric who said, "Day surgery let me out. The doctor said he was happy with my Angiogram; however, he wants to put in a pacemaker in the next couple of weeks".

This will make a big difference to Eric's health. We all wish Eric well and look forward to his speedy recovery.

This week we had apologies from: Gary Frank, Lindsay Walkington, Eric Smith, Carmel Fitzpatrick, Ron Payne, John Pearce, Jenny Sanderson and Trevor Lock.

A reminder that if members cannot attend the meeting to please let Mick know by SMS before noon Wednesday, otherwise meal costs may be incurred.

Alison (as our Guest Speaker this week and President Elect) gave us an in depth look at how she hopes our Club will operate for the next 12 months. Alison will email this proposal out to all members, and she looks forward to questions and constructive feedback as a result. Alison told us how the club was run historically and how it has evolved to where it is today.

Alison emphasised how we need to be more aware of succession planning as there is a potential for vital knowledge to be lost if some members left the club for any unforeseen reason.

I urge all members to embrace these changes and to give the proposal an enthusiastic trial. If it doesn't work, we have nothing to lose.

We have no meeting next Wednesday as we are supporting the Bendigo Maubisse Friendship Committee- Film Night Fundraiser. The movie is 'The Way, My Way'.

I understand there is only balcony seats available at the Star Cinema Eaglehawk next Thursday at 7pm (which is a great response) – but you can still book balcony seats now.

This Sunday we have a BBQ at Bunnings and John will be sending out a roster, there are some gaps that need filling. Please let John know asap.

The following weekend- which is the King's birthday weekend (It sounds funny doesn't it). We have a catering job at Camp Getaway Axedale on Saturday for the Governor's luncheon. Thanks to all who have offered to help. Also, on Saturday, we are staffing the football gate between 9am and 3pm We may need one more person for this.

Sunday is the Annual Mopars gathering at the Bendigo Town Hall Gardens. We will be operating between 7am and about 2pm and we will need as many helpers as we can get. Please let Mick know if you are available asap.

That's all for now – stay warm.

Geoff Gallagher- Acting President.
