President Geoff's report

Hi all

Last weekend we had plenty of sausages left over from our democracy sausage sizzle, so we donated them to Castlemaine Rotary for their truck show. What a fantastic weekend they had! I attended with my son and his two boys on Sunday and I think I enjoyed it more than the kids.

Congratulations to Castlemaine on a great project.

What a great night we had visiting the Fortuna Villa.

It was hard to believe that the building was a family home. It shows what you can do if you are the richest man in the world. A great meal and fellowship were enjoyed at the Golden Square Hotel afterwards. Many thanks to Brian Fitzpatrick for getting it organised. Well done, Brian!

We have a very busy time coming up before Christmas. John has circulated a roster so please help if you can.

Next Wednesday at our dinner meeting we have our mayor, Cr Andrea Metcalf present as guest speaker and the drawing of the Decade of Grange raffle. Not all tickets are sold at this stage, so I encourage you to form a syndicate amongst friends or family. It would make a great Christmas drink.

Next Tuesday is the screening of The Lost King at the Bendigo Cinemas at 5.30pm. This has been promoted in the Bulletin for several weeks, remember that this is a fundraiser for End Polio Now. Cost is $20.00. $10.00 goes to End Polio Now, which turns into $30.00 with the Bill and Amanda Gates Foundation donation.

Do not forget to pay for your tour of Fortuna, Alison has sent out an invoice. This was not for subscriptions as I thought.

Trevor Lock has been hard at work getting the Nativity Scene ready to display at St Vincent De Paul opportunity shop and installing the Christmas trees at the Town Hall. Please help Trevor, if possible, at 9am on Saturday.

I got a message from PP Gary Frank in Scotland.

"Hi Geoff

Status Quo was fantastic & meet with Rotary club

Club president Chris and DG Gayle in photo , will give full update when

Until next week stay safe.

Club Happenings

What a wonderful event!!
Our time at the historic Fortuna Villa caught in photo form

We all thank proprietor Mr Paul Banks who guided us through a tour of Fortuna, treating us to his great historic knowledge and general wit.

We also thank Brian Fitzpatrick for his great organization of our special Christmas Night, a visit to the Fortuna Villa and then a very tasty meal at the Golden Square Hotel. All members and their guests thoroughly enjoyed this social evening. There was a lot of great conversation and fellowship.

Thanks to PP Alison for her wonderful photography.
